to award scholarships for attending one of the Croatian language summer schools organized by the University of Zagreb in the academic year 2013/2014 for foreign students of Croatian origin who are coming to the University of Zagreb to learn the Croatian language.

The University of Zagreb Foundation awards scholarships amounting to HRK 2,500 (two thousand and five hundred kuna) per scholarship to part-fund the costs of attending the summer school. Students are required to submit receipts of expenditures upon the completion of the summer school.

The Foundation awards a total of five (5) scholarships.

GENERAL CRITERIA FOR AWARDING SCHOLARSHIPS

Eligible students must:

1. be of Croatian origin;
2. have completed at least 2 (two) semesters of any undergraduate study;
3. have applied to attend the summer school.

APPLICATION DOCUMENTS

Students need to submit:

1. written evidence of their origin (copy of birth verification, copy of valid passport or evidence of residence out of territory of Croatia);
2. motivation letter;
3. cv;
4. grade transcript;
5. evidence of attendance of summer school organized by the University of Zagreb.

Applications will be evaluated based on submitted application documents and preference will be given to candidates who are better students (higher grade point average).
